EXPECT HOUSE ACTION TODAY ON FARM BILLS

HAUGEN BILL, TINCHER AND CURTIS MEASURES

FOR FIRST TIME IN SESSION ALL THREE ARE DIRECTLY BEFORE HOUSE

OUTCOME OF AGRICULTURAL BATTLE SETTLED BY ACTION TODAY

Washington, May 21.—Farm relief legislation in the waning session of congress was virtually killed by Coolidge administration forces today, the vote on the Haugen bill being 167 to 212.

The house defeated the Haugen $175,000,000 farm price stabilization measure after a remarkable series of legislative reversals ending three weeks' debate.

The house this afternoon, acting as a committee of the whole, first recommended that the measure be sent back to committee by a vote of 171 to 166, then it disapproved its own recommendation 182 to 200 and on the final vote the administration forces marshalled their full strength and killed the measure.

By WILLIAM J. McEVOY (United Press Staff Correspondent) Washington, May 21.—Farm relief legislation is expected to be disposed of finally today by the house.

Leaders predicted that before adjournment tonight the three pending bills, the $175,000,000 Haugen price stabilization bill, the Tinchler credit bill and the Curtis-Aswell national commodity marketing bill, would receive final action.

For the first time since the legislation was called up the three bills were directly before the house.

The outcome of the agricultural battle still remains in doubt, although the Haugen forces appeared to have made material gains.

Majority Leader Tinson said an attempt would be made to send the Haugen bill back to the agricultural committee. This was a virtual admission that the administration would fail to supplant the Haugen bill with either the Tinchler or the Curtis-Aswell bills.

Washington, May 21.—On the first test vote on farm relief, the house indicated today that it would reject the $175,000,000 Haugen price stabilization bill.

Washington, May 21.—A motion to recommit the $175,000,000 Haugen price stabilization bill to the agricultural committee was made in the house today by Representative Madden, Illinois.

To permit Madden to make the motion, Rep. Tinchler, republican, Kansas, and Aswell, democrat, Louisiana, who had offered two substitute bills, withdrew their measures temporarily.

Madden's motion precipitated a bitter parliamentary wrangle, supporters of the Haugen bill claiming it was not in order.

After a lengthy parliamentary dispute Madden's motion was held in order. Representative Mapes, republican, Michigan, presiding officer, ruled that Madden was within his rights in making the motion.

Meantime Sen. Gooding, republican, Idaho, leader of the senate farm bloc warned the senate that adjournment will be held up until farm relief measure is enacted.

Gooding said the farmer will receive "a stone for a loaf of bread" if the Tinchler bill or Aswell measure is substituted for the Haugen bill.

Washington, May 21.—The house today defeated an administration motion to send the $175,000,000 Haugen farm relief price stabilization bill back to the agricultural committee.

The motion to recommit, which would have killed prospects of the bill's passage in the house at this session, was adopted by a narrow margin in the house, sitting as a committee of the whole, but the congressmen underwent a change of heart on the roll call.

The motion was rejected 200 to 182.

A final vote on the Haugen bill is probable now, although the house in rejecting the motion it adopted in committee, leaves the measure in a peculiar parliamentary status and the exact course to be followed is problematical.

After the motion to recommit was

Brainerd Gas Co. Has Made Many Improvements

AMERICAN ARMY OFFICER RELEASED BY CHINESE BANDITS

Peking, May 21.—(UP)—Captain Thomas J. Betts, American army officer held captive by bandits in the Yunnan province, has been released, according to a telegram dated May 19, received here from the American consul at Yunnan Fu. Betts, whose home is in Maryland, is a coast artillery officer and served here as language officer at the headquarters of the military attaché. He was captured when on a trip from the south to Peking. His wife and mother-in-law are in this city.

MURDERER IS EXECUTED BY LETHAL GAS

SECOND TIME THAT NEVADA HAS USED GAS TO EXECUTE MURDERER

THIS TIME VICTIM WAS STANKO JUDICH, WHO KILLED HIS SWEETHEART

Carson City, Nevada, May 21.—(UP)—Three short blasts of hissing gas shot through the floor of a small airtight cell in the yard of the Nevada state prison today, took the life of a man strapped tightly to a chair within.

The victim was Stanko Judich, 23, Serbian, executed in the Nevada bizarre manner for the killing of Jane Manko, his 16-year-old sweetheart, when she refused to wed him.

It was the second time that Nevada has used gas to execute its murderers and the killing was pronounced "entirely successful" by the physicians and witnesses who pressed close to the thick window at one side of the death room and saw Judich's head drop quickly to his breast.

It was only three minutes from the time the first shot of the dark colored, peach kernel smelling hydrocyanic gas was pumped into the concrete vault until Judich was pronounced dead.

Escorted by three guards, the Serbian entered the cell at 10:55 A. M. Only a minute was consumed by the officers in binding the convict to the chair, one strap around his chest, one about the abdomen and another tightening his legs.

The gas fumes were shot into the room at 10:56 A. M.

Judich was unconscious within 30 seconds, the four physicians peering through the glass declared.

Three minutes from the first injection he was dead.

Judich died bravely and not at all like his nervousness of recent days would presage.

He walked through the court yard to the death room unsupported, nodding and smiling to witnesses who lined the path.

"Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye," he kept repeating as he passed.

After the slayer was pronounced dead, fans were turned on and the task of clearing the gas from the cell commenced. Physicians indicated it would be at least 30 minutes before guards could safely enter the vault and cut loose the silent form, slumped down in the gray chair against the bars.

John Randolph, matricide, who up until yesterday, was doomed to die in a chair next to Judich, did not know his life had been spared until guards took the Serb out of the adjoining cell.

He then learned that the state pardon board had commuted his sentence to life imprisonment.

Winona.—John Waters, 73, the first white child born in Buffalo, Wis., will be buried here tomorrow.

Waters, who had farmed in this district all his life, died yesterday.

rejected, Speaker Longworth put the bill and its amendments before the house for passage. The amendments approved by the house in committee of the whole were approved.

Representative Aswell, democrat, Louisiana, then offered another motion to recommit which carried an instruction to the agriculture committee to report his national commodity bill in place of the Haugen measure.

Speaker Longworth sustained objections by farm bloc members that the Aswell motion was not in order.

Aswell then sought unsuccessfully to recommit the measure with instructions.

TELLS STORY OF BATH TUB WINE PARTY OF CARROLL

REPORTER TELLS SEEING GIRL BATHING IN THE TUB

MEN FILLED GLASSES FROM THE TUB AND THEN DRANK

New York, May 21.—(UP)—Arthur Irwin, young newspaperman, told in court today the story of Earl Carroll's famous Washington's birthday party on the stage of the Carroll theater, at which, Irwin testified, Miss Joyce Hawley, actress, bathed for about 10 minutes in a tub alleged to have contained champagne.

Irwin was continuing testimony he started yesterday in Carroll's trial for perjury in connection with the federal grand jury's investigation of his party.

Irwin described how a bath tub was sitting on a platform on the stage where the party was held. He and others, he said, had filled their glasses from the contents of the tub and drank.

"Was anyone in it when you drank?" he was asked.

"There was not," he quickly responded.

"Carroll was near by but I did not see him drink anything," he said.

Carroll had told the grand jury he himself never drank.

"Did you see anyone in the tub?" came the question.

"Yes," Irwin answered.

"Do you know who it was?"

"It was Miss Joyce Hawley,"

"Carroll was standing at the left of the tub," he testified.

"The tub had never moved to the center of the stage. A chair was placed in front of it and Carroll stood on the chair and held up a glass."

"Then he let the cloak slip a little and the members of the party could see Miss Hawley remove a little chemise she had on and step into the tub. After she got into the tub I could see her from a little below the shoulders up."

"Fifteen or twenty men went on the stage and formed a line. Some drank from the tub."

He said Miss Hawley "remained in her bath" about five or ten minutes. Carroll, he said, was nearby but as far as he knew, said nothing to Miss Hawley nor did he drink from the tub.

"After a while the tub was pushed to the back of the stage behind a curtain and I didn't see Miss Hawley get out," Irwin testified.

Phillip Payne, editor of a New York newspaper followed Irwin to the stand. He testified he arrived at the party at 2:30 A. M. and there were between 40 and 50 persons on the stage.

The tub was at one side, but later the editor declared, it was moved to the center.

"Did you have any conversation with Mr. Carroll?" the prosecutor asked. "Yes, I was tired and started to leave at about 3:30," Payne replied. "Mr. Carroll stopped me and said:

"Don't go yet. I'm going to put on a woe of a stunt."

"Did he say what the stunt was?"

"Yes, he said he was going to have a girl bathe in a tub of wine,"

Payne stated.

Payne declared that Carroll himself had identified the girl in the bath tub as Joyce Hawley. He related the story of Joyce's dip.

Payne, it developed, had seen a little more than Irwin; he said he had been sitting in the fifth or sixth row at the time.

"Miss Hawley came out wearing an under garment," he said, "and Carroll held up a large black coat between her and the audience."

"I could only see her legs as far as her knees, but then I saw the under garment slip down her legs to the floor."

"From where I sat I could only see her head and shoulders in the bath tub."

With Joyce once in the tub Payne declared, Carroll, with a flourish, had turned to the orchestra seats with an announcement, "something like:

"The line forms on the right!"

And the line, according to Payne, formed.

Court at this point recessed for lunch.

Krim was forced to flee before an important advance of French and Spanish forces.

FORMER DRY HEAD PLEADS GUILTY IN COURT

AWAITS SENTENCE FOR HIS PART IN "PLYMOUTH LIQUOR THEFT" CASE

INDICTMENT RETURNED CHARGING HIM WITH COMPLICITY

Milwaukee, Wis., May 21.—(UP)—Clark M. Perry, former prohibition director of Wisconsin, was today awaiting sentence for his part in the "Plymouth liquor theft" case, following his plea of guilty in federal court here late yesterday.

The indictment charging him with complicity in the case was returned by the recent federal grand jury after agents and federal authorities had spent several months investigating the case.

Perry is the fourth prohibition official in Wisconsin to be indicted since the Volstead law went into effect. Two of these officials indicted served sentences and the third died just before he was named in an indictment.

Oliver McCarthy, former president of the Chilton Brewery, and Gerhardt Jensen, former vice president of the concern, entered pleas of guilty to liquor law violations in indictments returned against them. Sentence was also deferred.

FUNDAMENTALIST BELIEF INVOLVED

BAPTIST ASSEMBLY CONSIDERS CASE OF OUSTED PASTOR, REV. CROMBIE

Huron, S. D., May 21.—The Baltimore General Assembly of the Baptist Church will be asked to decide whether the fundamentalist beliefs of Rev. Albert H. Crombie, ousted pastor of Lead, S. D., prevent his wearing the vestments of the church.

Rev. Crombie announced his intention to appeal shortly after the state synod by unanimous vote had removed him from the pulpit Thursday evening, reversing the decision of the Black Hills Presbytery.

Meanwhile Rev. Crombie said he would begin the organization of a fundamentalist church with the help of his supporters in Lead.

The action of the state synod was based on the appeal of a majority of the members of the congregation from the decision of the Black Hills Presbytery allowing the pastor to retain his charge.

The congregation objected to Rev. Crombie's conduct in the pulpit and said he had openly abused communicants of the church.

ENDEAVOR TO COMPROMISE WRIGHT CASE

ARCHITECT AND SCULPTRESS IN MADISON, WIS., COURT BATTLE

ALL TERMS AGREED TO EXCEPT THE AMOUNT OF MONEY

Madison, Wis., May 21.—(UP)—Negotiations between attorneys for Frank Lloyd Wright, internationally known architect, and Miriam Noel Wright, sculptress, to effect a settlement without open trial of Wright's suit for divorce, were resumed in circuit court here today.

From out of the closed conference room last night came information that all terms had been agreed to, except the monetary consideration. It is proposed that Wright withdraw his divorce suit, Mrs. Wright her cross bill charging adultery and re-instate her suit for divorce on the grounds of cruelty.

Wright, under the agreement, is to provide separate maintenance for Mrs. Wright, based upon his ability to pay. It is this part which halted settlement progress last night and forced adjournment until 9 A. M. today.

The exact terms offered Mrs. Wright's lawyers by counsel for Wright are not known, but it was said last night they were "absolutely the last overture." If they are not accepted the case will be tried in court as originally planned, or dropped by Wright, leaving the present relationship unchanged.

Mrs. Wright denied this morning the report that she had accepted $1,000 cash and $125 a month understood to be Wright's "final offer" in settlement. Judge A. C. Hoppmann also denied approving a settlement.

If the trial proceeds Olga Malinoff, beautiful Russian dancer named by Mrs. Wright in her cross bill, will be brought into the testimony and other equally sensational phases of Wright's private life paraded before the court.

Wright is anxious to avoid this procedure, but was pessimistic today over the possibility of a settlement.

"It has been this close a dozen times in the last two months only to fail," he said.

Mrs. Wright is equally anxious for settlement but wants to be certain that she "will not have to scrape along while this other woman, Olga, is living in luxury."

GREAT FREIGHT TRAFFIC OF THE NORTHWEST LOOMS

FREIGHT CARS FROM ALL SECTIONS ORDERED INTO THE AREA

CROP CONDITIONS INDICATE A TREMENDOUS YIELD

Chicago, May 21.—(UP)—Freight cars from all corners of the nation today were ordered into the middle west in anticipation of the greatest freight traffic in grains on record.

The orders went out from the American Railway Association after hearing reports that crop conditions in the southwest and most parts of the western wheat belt indicated tremendous yield. No comparative figures were given on the crop estimates, but the car service department reported private advices which indicated that the crop would be so large that the railroads would be faced with the most serious transportation problem in history.

Empty cars available for handling grain shipments have been ordered out of the eastern and southern states so that they will be ready to carry the big grain loads.

DUPLICATE SET OF GAS MACHINES IS INSTALLED

INSURES CONTINUED SERVICE TO GAS USERS OF BRAINERD

COMPANY ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON; CITIZENS VIEW THE PLANT

The Northern States Power company, parent company of the Brainerd Gas & Electric company, entertained at luncheon Thursday noon at the Ransford hotel in commemoration of the completion of improvements at their local gas plant. George Sweet, district manager of Brainerd, presided.

The guests numbered 20 and included representative business and professional men, including some of the largest gas users of the city.

Wheeler Whitney of St. Cloud, general manager of the St. Cloud division, told of the experiences of the company operating in Brainerd, and the intention, as clearly evidenced by improvements added at times, to furnish competent and continued service.

At the time of the $2.50 rate the company had 350 consumers. The rate structure was given careful study and in May, 1925, a new and cheaper rate succeeded the original one. Last summer an intensive campaign for new business added approximately 200 customers and increased the roll of gas users to about 550. This summer, continued Mr. Whitney, the company expects to bring the list of consumers up to 700 or 750, the final goal being set at 1,000.

The Brainerd rate, said the speaker, is now as reasonable as that of any city of the size of Brainerd. Fargo people, visiting Brainerd, find the gas rates about the same. Minneapolis people find them higher.

Mr. Whitney explained that higher charges are necessary in a city like Brainerd, where consumers are scattered and where 13½ miles of far flung mains are required to serve the community. At Minneapolis, for instance, one hotel like the Leamington will give a gas company 300 consumers at one point. The investment in a town like Brainerd is more extensive, per consumer served, than in a large city where gas consumers can be secured in groups and colonies.

The time is coming, said Mr. Whitney, when gas will not be regarded as a luxury, but as a real necessity. He revealed that the company is giving careful study to the complaint situation. If you have one to make, please send it in and never withhold it, as this is practically a definite way in which the company may find out if their service is satisfactory.

Mr. Whitney in conclusion explained that keeping a gas bill down to a reasonable figure depended not so much on the price of the gas, but on proper use of the appliances. For instance, leaving a tea kettle on when the gas should be turned off; leaving the hot water on when it should be shut off; the hundred and one careless ways of burning gas when no need existed, all these little things helped to add to the gas bill.

Walter F. Wieland congratulated the company on the confidence they had shown in the city. Their improvements meant much to Brainerd. He praised the work of the local manager, Mr. Sweet.

R. R. Gould, president of the Chamber of Commerce and a large gas user, spoke briefly.

Louis Stein, gas engineer of the Northern States Power company, of Minneapolis, used a chart and lectured on the making of water gas, explaining each step from raw material to the finished product passing through the mains.

The machine installed at the Brainerd plant is a Western Gas Construction Co.'s four foot water gas set complete with Western bypass and reverse steam connections.

The machine consists of three cylindrical steel shells. The generator and carburetor are 11 feet six inches in height and the superheater is 20 feet, six inches in height and all lined with fire brick and asbestos for heat insulation purposes.

In the process of making gas in this machine, the generator is filled with coke, and blasted with air introduced at the base until the fire is what is called incandescent, and the carburetor and superheater are heated.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Continue in Gardner Hall in Charge of Rev. H. J. Anderson and Rev. Fletcher

"The Precious Blood" was Rev. H. J. Anderson's subject at last night's service in Gardner hall. He pointed out that all dates point back to Calvary and this precious blood, and every time a letter is written a testimony is given to that fact. In all that has been accomplished in this world there has been shedding of blood, and in redeeming this world from sin Christ shed His own precious blood. Rev. Fletcher had charge of the singing.

Tonight Rev. Anderson will speak on the subject of "Amusements," and a large crowd is expected out to hear the message on this important subject. There will be special singing and music, and everyone is urged to come. Meeting begins at 8 p. m.

There will be no service tomorrow night in the hall, but two big services on Sunday. Rev. Anderson desires all Christians in Brainerd who are interested in a revival to co-operate with their prayers and presence.

Non-Continuous

I saw a man whose fliv. had stalled upon a little hill. He'd bravely push a little while, then rest beside the rill. And while he'd rest, his liz. would slide a little further down.— At length it took a two-horse team to drag it o'er the crown! I said: "That hombre is a simp. If he had kept on pushin' Instead of resting him so oft upon a grassy cushion. He could have eased that tinware o'er the hillock's brow alone— He should have used continuously the strength that was his own." I saw a man in retail trade who'd run a little ad. Proclaiming to a curious world the sort of stuff he had. He'd make a little headway with the notice he inserted. Then quit till to the other shops his new-found trade reverted. If he had kept on telling, in a little daily space, The virtues of the various wares Kept in his little place, He would have held attention till the buyers got the habit— The hound's continuous running is required to catch a rabbit. —Strickland Gillilan.

PEPPY MUSIC ASSURED

Tomorrow Night's U. C. T. Dance Expected to Break All Attendance Records

Tomorrow night's U. C. T. dance in the Gardner's hall promises to outstrip all previous dances for peppy music, a general good time and a record attendance.

Possibly the first question one asks another today is "Are you going to the U. C. T. dance tomorrow night." Usually the answer is "I certainly am. I wouldn't miss them."

The U. C. T. have established the reputation in Brainerd that when they announce a dance to their patrons, they are going to make a real time of it. The same has applied in the past and the same will apply tomorrow night. It's going to be a real dance party.

The U. C. T. orchestra of ten pieces which have achieved fame in the community will dish up the music as only they know how. And that's not all, there's going to be a few surprises on the program. Admission is by invitation.

W. C. O. F. PARTY

First Part of Evening Was Miscellaneous Shower for Mrs. J. P. Russell

The Womans Catholic Order of Foresters gave a party at the K. C. hall last night, the first part of the evening being taken up with a miscellaneous shower given for Mrs. J. P. Russell of Merrifield who was the recipient of many useful gifts.

The latter part of the evening was taken up by a very much enjoyed suit case party. Every guest had been requested to bring a suit case full of enough garments to fill, satisfactorily, the needs of any one person and upon the guests arrival, his case was given to another individual who was requested to dress up in the enclosed clothing. Many artistic and harmonizing costumes were obtained the funniest costume being generally accorded to Mrs. M. Kracher. An extemporaneous program was then given in which the following took part:

Mrs. L. J. Mraz and Mrs. Coffield gave an Irish jig, Mrs. Jaeger, a very good example of a Dutch hop, Mrs. George Dennis and Mrs. L. F. Hoff an exhibition of the rye waltz, Mrs. Glyn and Miss Helen Mraz, the Charleston; Mrs. Derosier and Mrs. MacDonnell, an individuality dance, Mrs. Joe Krause, and Mrs. McComas a Bowery dance, and a novel specialty dance was given by Mrs. M. E. Ryan.

Accompaniments for the dancers was played by Mayme Scallon, a versatile artist on the piano and an orchestra composed of the Misses Emily Mraz, Lucille Gray, Evelyn Mraz, and Mayme Scallon played for the general dancing after the program. A most delightful lunch was served.

KEEPS FAITH WITH THE VOTERS

THE Princeton Union carries an editorial this week which praises Governor Christianson for keeping faith with the voters. It reviews many of his acts as governor and shows how his economy program has been faithfully carried out. It admits, as any person may easily reason, that such a program has made a few enemies, for it is easier to spend money than to save it. To save money means to go without certain things, to cut down expenses and to generally disarrange a budget which was more lavish in certain expenditures.

The Princeton Union editorial follows:

Theodore Christianson, who has served as governor of this state just a little more than 16 months, is now going before the voters seeking re-election. It is refreshing to note that he is seeking election on the record he has made in that office during those 16 months and in his keynote speech delivered at Faribault he called the attention of the voters to the campaign promises that he made two years ago. When a candidate can adopt such tactics in opening his campaign for re-election, the voters can be absolutely sure that he has kept faith with them. Altogether too few of our candidates when going before the voters wish to remind them of campaign promises made in the past.

Christianson went into the governor's office determined, if it was within his power, to hold down the expenses of the administration of the state government and he has been surprisingly successful in his endeavors. The biennial appropriations, which are made by the legislature and on which the governor passes, in 1915 totaled $18,000,000. In 1917 they were $22,000,000; in 1919 $32,000,000; in 1921, $37,000,000; in 1923, more than $40,000,000. But in 1925 they were set at almost the same amount as in 1923 despite the fact, as Governor Christianson states, that the appropriation for the state aid to the schools in 1925 was increased $100,000, and that the appropriations for the eradication of tuberculosis in cattle and for forest fire prevention and reforestation was increased respectively $350,000 and $75,000.

Theodore Christianson has not carried through his program of economy without making enemies because there is nothing easier in the world than to spend another man's money, but he has gone a long way in accomplishing the task he set for himself. It is to the interest of the taxpayers in Minnesota to keep in the governor's office for another term a man who is pledged to a sane program of economy and who has the courage to fight for his principles even if by so doing he makes bitter enemies.

The only thing that the taxpayers in Minnesota may regret is that the same principles of economy are not put into effect in conducting the affairs of their local governments.

NARROW HIGHWAYS

STATE highway officials, we are told, says the St. Paul Daily News, have at last come to the conclusion that a great mistake has been made in building roadways too narrow.

During the past 10 years the state has been extremely short-sighted in constructing paved highways only 18 feet wide. It has found from sad and costly experience now that many of these roads must be widened at much greater cost than they could have been constructed for in the first place.

The increase in the use of highways with the resultant loss of time and damages from narrow highways is beginning to constitute a serious problem. Henceforth it is proposed to widen the highways so that at least four lines of traffic may pass on them.

Well, officers and taxpayers live to learn from experience. Meanwhile it would be a good thing to bear this experience in mind when the next proposal is made for a widened highway. Opponents should consider that they are frequently losing an eventual dollar to save an immediate penny.

A MUSIC contest should be productive of harmony. But sometimes there is a rift in the lute. The Park Rapids Enterprise notes editorially "that a number of Park Rapids people were not wholly satisfied with the outcome of the district music contest held there last week. Bemidji won the lion's share of the honors. The fact that the judge was a Bemidji school teacher lends color to charges that honors were not placed with strict regard for merit. It was plainly an error, realized too late, to allow a person from one of the towns in the contest to act as judge. However conscientiously the judging is done," says the Enterprise in conclusion, "there is always opportunity for suspicion to creep in."

OUR wild flowers need protection. Uprooting a few for some flower bed serves to destroy a whole community of the flowers. And besides, they will never thrive in a new garden unless the same soil is used in which to transplant them. Wild flowers can no more be cultivated into virile specimens than wild birds or wild animals. Domestication dulls them.

OUR Brainerd Ladies band is getting a lot of publicity and incidentally is bringing the name of Brainerd to the attention of the world. Winnipeg is now bidding to have the ladies play there early in July. If arrangements can be made to play in Canada, it will give the Brainerd Ladies band international notice.

THE auto coming from the right has the right of way at an intersection, but it is well to remember that a locomotive has the right of way, whether coming from the right or left, says the Baudette Region very sagely.

THE bride doesn't make the biscuits like mother made; nor does the bridegroom make dough like father made, comments the Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

IF you build a big business, you're a sinister influence; if you don't, you're a darned failure, says the Fort Wayne Star-Telegram.

SOME editorial writer had a story on "Undigested Opportunities." Such kind of opportunities are the tincans our goat eats.

THE Long Prairie Leader recently issued a fine agricultural section.

ed to the required temperature, 1350 degrees Fahrenheit, for making gas. Then the blast is shut off and steam introduced at the base of the fire which passing through the fire decomposes and makes what is known as a blue gas valued at about 309 B. T. U. (British Thermal Units) in heat. This gas passes into the top of the carburetor from generator and passes downward through what is termed checker brick mixing with an oil gas made by introducing a fine spray of oil at the top of the carburetor which gasifies when striking the hot brickwork in the carburetor, bringing the value up to approximately 520 B. T. U. as required for commercial and residential use. The gas leaves the carburetor at the base and passes into the superheater, which is like the carburetor in brick construction and it passes upward through checker brick and becomes fixed so that its gas properties cannot separate. Then the gas passes off into a wash box which is filled with water and cools it, removing the large amount of tar, and also acting as a safety valve or seal to prevent gas passing back into the machine.

The cycle of operation of the machine is determined by the best results obtained. In this case five minutes constitutes this cycle. A blast is put on for two minutes, blast taken off and a run of three minutes made. The run of three minutes is divided into three operations, two minutes up-run in which steam at base of generator and oil at top of carburetor are used, then oil is shut off and valves reversed for 30 seconds so that steam enters top of generator passing downward through fire and out to the washbox (not however through carburetor and superheater as in the up-run). This reverse steam action or run revivifies the fire after the action of the steam on the up-run. Then the valves are reversed and a thirty second up-run is made to clear machine of all possible valuable gas. Then the complete operation is repeated.

The generator fire replenished with fuel approximately every seven runs.

When the gas leaves the wash box it passes into the relief holder which as it is called a relief storage tank (in this case) to take care of gas as made. Here the gas is again cooled and more tar removed, then it passes to the condenser which cools it again, then it is passed to a scrubber where balance of tar is removed, from there to the purifiers which remove the sulphur and other impurities. From here it goes to a compressor, which stores it in the storage tanks up to a pressure of 100 pounds. From there it goes through a series of regulators which reduce the pressure before it goes into the mains to a pressure of approximately one pound, which is again reduced to a pressure of about one-seventh of

LADIES BAND COMPLIMENTED

Verndale Sun Gives Laudatory Article in Recent Issue

Wherever the Brainerd Ladies band have occasion to play, there they immediately become popular, making new friends and receiving more compliments on their ability as musicians.

Sunday afternoon the band will journey to Aitkin where they will play at the Aitkin Armory at 2:30 o'clock.

The Verndale Sun in writing up the local band's performance at Verndale last Thursday gives an idea of the welcome the band received there as in other places. The writing follows:

When the curtain raised on the 35 players in the Brainerd Ladies' band at the Verndale opera house on Thursday night, looks of surprise were seen on all spectators as the spectacle was beautiful, the young ladies making a striking appearance in their snappy uniforms and all settling posed at attention, eyes on their able leader and ready for the signal to start. And when that signal did come every corner in the hall was filled with music and it was not necessary to strain your ears to hear the numbers as played. Everybody pronounced them simply grand and feel honored to have had them play here. Not only did they give many beautiful selections but specialties of dancing, singing and musical solos selections pleased the fair sized number present. They are a first class band and being all ladies makes more of an attraction than otherwise. The highland fling as danced by Bernice Murphy met with special applause and the slide trombone feature piece seemed to please very much. When Winifred Cronk Ziebell, director, gave her cornet solo the real music lovers seemed to realize that the audience was being treated to class in music.

The Booster club liked them so well that they have made arrangements with the management to have the band play here on the Fourth of July and with the aid of the Verndale band it is believed that there will be plenty of music.

To Deliver Commencement Address Minneapolis — Henry Marshall Tory, president of the University of Alberta, will deliver the commencement address at the University of Minnesota, June 14, instead of Dr. Glenn Frank of Wisconsin, as previously announced. A conflict of engagements necessitated the change.

LATZO BEATS WALKER BY CLOSE MARGIN

COAL MINER IS CROWNED AS NEW CHAMPION

SCRANTON DELIRIOUS OVER THE OUTCOME OF THE FIGHT

WALKER SAYS FIGHT WAS TOO CLOSE TO WREST TITLE FROM HIM

Scranton, Pa., May 21.—(UP)—Pete Latzo, who was crowned welterweight boxing champion of the world after his victory over Mickey Walker in 10 rounds here last night, must give the former champion a chance at the title within 90 days, the Pennsylvania Boxing Commission ruled today.

Two commissioners at the ring-side during the fight last night immediately went into conference with referee. They decided Walker should have an immediate chance to regain his title because the margin of Latzo's victory was so small.

Latozo's victory came after the two judges, Jack Kofod of Wilkesbarre, and Mike Bernstein of Philadelphia, decided Latzo had won six of the ten rounds.

In the opening session Walker was the swaying, jabbing champion who had reigned for four years. He jabbed repeatedly to the body and Latzo took severe punishment.

But in mid-bout, Latzo who just a short while ago was a coal miner, started pelting the champion about the ring with rights and lefts, materially weakening the shifting champion. Towards the end of the bout, Walker assimilated severe punishment from the steady punching Latzo.

Scranton was deliriously happy over the bout. Latzo, the 23 year old miner, is the city's first champion. The fans stormed the ring and it was with difficulty that Paddy Mullins was able to lead the new champion to his dressing room.

After the bout, Latzo said: "I was sure I would win. I'll give Walker another chance but without boasting, I know the result will be the same."

Walker took his defeat smilingly, but said he thought "the fight was too close for them to take my title away from me."

Scranton, Pa., May 21.—Immediately after his victory over Mickey Walker for the world's welterweight title, Pete Latzo of this city signed a contract to defend his new title in New York on July 9. It is understood Pete's rival in the bout will be Mickey Walker.

The Brainerd high school baseball team with a number of fans journey to Staples this afternoon to play the first Staples team.

The game will start at 3:30 o'clock.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's Hero—L. Bell of the Cardinals, whose home run, scoring a man ahead of him, enabled his team to win a 4 to 1 pitchers' battle from Philadelphia.

Babe Ruth made No. 15 for the season in the Yankees' ninth straight victory. They beat the Browns, 5 to 4, although outlit.

The Tigers made it two straight over Washington, 6 to 5, putting over the needed run in the ninth inning.

The Giants rallied and managed to win a game from the Pirates, 5 to 4. After the first inning the visitors did not score off Morrison until the ninth.

The Mackmen pounded three Cleveland pitchers and had an easy time winning, 10 to 2.

Eighteen hits off four Boston pitchers gave the White Sox a 13 to 4 walkaway.

The Robins lost their fourth straight, dropping another to the league leading Reds, 7 to 2.

Chicago took second place in the National league by winning from the Braves, 8 to 4.

Outfitting the Saints 2 to 1 and winning 9 to 1 while the Colonels were losing, the Kaws crept up to within half a game of first place. Zinn on the mound for the Kaws held the Saints to six hits.

Sommers worked in great form and the Senators copped their seventh game of the season, defeating the Colonels 5 to 4.

One big inning, the eighth, enabled the Hens to put over five runs and tie the count. In the ninth another counter gave them a 7 to 6 victory over the Indians.

In a free for all hitting contest the Brewers downed the Millers, 12 to 7.

BOXING WORLD FEATURES TWO IN CONTRAST

PETE LATZO AND GEORGES CARPENTIER ARE COMPARED

BOTH ARE GREAT FAVORITES OF THE BOXING FANS

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, May 21.—News of the boxing world today features the names of two fighters who present a marked contrast.

The one is Pete Latzo, product of the Pennsylvania coal mines, who last night became the world's welterweight champion when he gained the decision over Mickey Walker in a 10 round bout at Scranton.

The other is Georges Carpentier, the colorful Frenchman, who tonight will return to the ring at Madison Square Garden against Sailor Eddie Hoffman, a rough and ready youngster from the coast.

Georges still hopes to shoot toward the top of the light heavyweight division where he once reigned as champion.

Latozo and Carpentier both are favorites with the fans. But Latzo's popularity is that of youth triumphantly pressing forward to new laurels. The Frenchman's popularity is more fatalistic. He is the gorgeous Georges, even in defeat.

At 32 he is on the toboggan; at 23, Latzo is in the ascendancy.

Latozo is of Slavic extraction and has been fighting for seven years. His entrance into the ring was by accident. He substituted for a fighter who had failed to appear.

Known at first as Young Clancy, he fought frequently and well. He has had 94 bouts and suffered only one knockout. That was delivered by Morrie Schlaifer, but in a subsequent bout Latzo secured revenge.

That is the keynote of Latzo's success. He has been beaten by five fighters. Each of the five, including Mickey Walker, late, has fallen before the fierce onslaughts of the Scranton boy. If ever a boxer showed pluck and did not know when he was beaten, Latzo did.

No such record has been compiled by Carpentier. He has lost innumerable bouts, the last with Gene Tunney here in 1924. Gene knocked out the Frenchman in the 15th round. But Georges keeps on intermittently and the fans admit his gracefulness in inevitable defeat.

TENNIS FANS WANT TOURNAMENT PLAN PERFECTED

ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEETING AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ROOMS

CROSBY FIRST TO SIGNIFY WISH TO PLAY BRAINERD SQUADS

A meeting of the newly organized tennis association was held Wednesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

It was decided that the association should communicate with all nearby towns who would be interested in a tennis tournament to be held here, in June after the completion of the new court, work, on which, will be commenced about June 3. Crosby has already signified its intention of taking part in the tournament.

Following the adult tournament, a tournament for Juniors would be held, allowing all children under 16 years of age to be eligible to compete. It is interesting to note that the East Court will be devoted to Juniors and the West Court to the adults exclusively.

Lawrence Ericsson and Floyd Nelson are now soliciting tennis fans to sign a petition for the enlarging of the present organization and to stimulate interest in the coming tournament. If any one wishes to join the association, please communicate with either Mr. Ericsson or Mr. Nelson. A membership fee of 50 cents will be charged.

Little Falls, May 21.—(UP)—Several thousand sportsmen are expected in Little Falls June 24, 25 and 26 when the State Game Protective League holds its annual convention. Committees of the Morrison County Sportsman's club will be host to the gathering.

Chief among the features of the convention will be a huge elk and buffalo barbecue, which will be served free to guests. The animals will be obtained from the city park, the gift of the Little Falls city council.

Business sessions will take place at the Elks Home on Thursday and Friday of the convention, while Saturday will be devoted to sports. One of the largest trap shoots of the state will be held on that day.

The shoot will be a 140 single target event with $200 in money open to all. A special event for a $150 silver trophy cup will be put on for members only.

The trap shoot and other sports will be held on Maple Island, a beautiful spot located near the heart of the city in the Mississippi river.

S. S. SLUGGERS 25, METHODISTS 24

ENGAGE IN REAL OLD FASHION- ED BALL GAME LAST NIGHT

The Southside Sluggers and the Methodists engaged in a real old fashioned ball game last night in the field below the courthouse, the Southsiders winning by the close score of 25 to 24.

The ball field was a makeshift affair, the infield having countless knolls and stubbage an uncertainty. The outfielders played behind trees in back of the infield and a barb wire fence for the right fielder kept him busy going over the top.

Errors were plenty on both sides and accounted for most of the scores. The official scorer quit counting after the total reached 23. Every player on both teams was a heavy hitter and so runs were so frequent they would have made Babe Ruth weep had he been there.

Darkness interfered also and helped to swell the score. The feature of the game was the fifth inning rally of the South Siders who raced the bases for 19 scores. The Methodists rallied in their half of the inning but fell short by one run of tying up the score. A return game is to be played on a more suitable diamond.

The line-up:
South Side: Schuety, c.; Dechaine, p.; Peterson, 1b; Grenier, ss; Cass, 2b; Coffey, 3b; Paulson, 1f; Raines, cf; Lyons, rf.
Methodists: Dybvick, c; Quirk, p, 1b; Hautala, 1b, p; B. Foster, ss, p; Cunningham, 2b; E. Foster, 3b; Trask, 1f; Hedlund, cf; Johnson, rf; Vaughn, p.

BRAINERD FACES FIRST BIG TEST OF SEASON SUNDAY

DULUTH TEAM BRINGING HIGH CLASS LINE-UP FOR GAME

DELBERN TO BE ON MOUND FOR BRAINERD, NASON AT SECOND

The Brainerd N. P. city team will face its first big test of the season Sunday when they entertain the Duluth aggregation for an afternoon baseball tete-a-tete at the Municipal diamond, the game starting at 2:30 o'clock.

J. P. Anderson, superintendent of the local N. P. Shops, and one of the chief enthusiasts for the development of baseball facilities in the city, will throw the first ball at the opening of the game. A large crowd is expected to be on hand to greet the Brainerd boys when they open the home season.

Brainerd has a salaried battery, which includes Fred Delbern, well known hurler in northern Minnesota, as pitcher, and Claude Kline of Aitkin behind the plate. The rest of the team is home talent, and includes two new men, Nason, a newcomer in town, and Ware, who recently came from Aitkin. Nason plays second base, and Ware plays third.

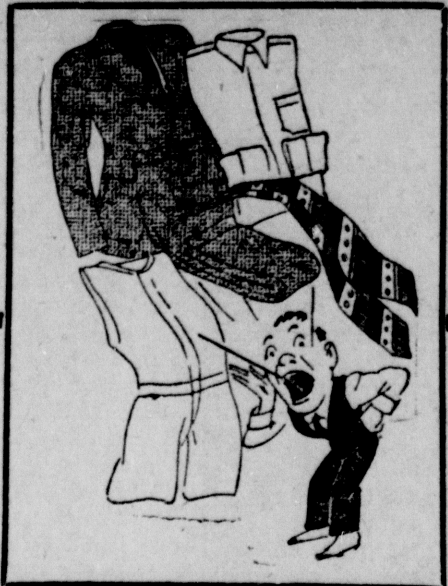

The Brainerd line-up will include besides those already mentioned: Hanson at first, Uddenberg at shortstop, Sheffo in left field, Peterson in center, and Ziebell, Ringer or Schwindeman in right.

Norman, local catcher, is still under the doctor's care for injuries received at New York Mills, but will be ready for the Winona series at Winona on May 30 and 31.

The Duluth team will have two first class pitchers on hand for the game, Hanson and Hill. Hanson is a big left-hander, clever with his curves and hooks, and has portended many fast teams back to the beach with his slants. Catching him will be Holstein, a great receiver and a mighty clouter with the willow. The rest of the Duluth line-up will be given in Saturday's Dispatch.

Minneapolis, May 21.—(UP)—The submarine tricks of Al Redding of the University of Minnesota baseball team have resulted in the first no hit, no run game of the western conference season.

The University of Iowa nine was the victim. While Redding was blanking the Hawkeyes, his teammates welded heavy bats and won, 11 to 0.

It was Iowa's eighth straight defeat.

Wilcox-Markowitz

The home of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Wilcox on Cleveland boulevard was the scene of a pretty wedding last Saturday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Barbara Jane, was united in marriage with Leo C. Markowitz of Brainerd, Minn. The marriage was solemnized at four o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The living rooms had been prettily decorated for the occasion with pink snap dragons, cheery blossoms and palms. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. W. E. Hammond sang, "Because." Miss Ethel Olson played Lohengrin's wedding march while the bride party entered. Little Inge Wilcox and Betty McKeown dressed in pink georgette and white net acted as flower girls and carried baskets of pink sweet peas. Miss Natica Chase as the bride's maid followed wearing an ashes of roses canton crepe gown with hat to match and carrying pink sweet peas. The bride, beautiful in a suit of navy blue tulle and tan canton crepe with hat to match, carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas, schizanthus and asparagus ferns, entered on the arm of her father and was given away at the improvised altar of cherry blossoms and palms, where they were met by the groom and Henry Mills who acted as the best man. Rev. W. E. Hammond read the impressive marriage service.

A two course luncheon of perfect appointments was served at one long table on the sun porch, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out. A little later the happy couple stole away, taking the Great Northern train for Bemidji from which place they left for a honeymoon trip in the Twin Cities. On their return they will begin house-keeping in Brainerd, Minn.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Miss Eleanor Markowitz of Minneapolis, a sister of the groom, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Thabes and Henry Mills of Brainerd, and the Misses Doris and Susan Bailey of Backus, Minn.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Wilcox who are numbered among our most prominent families. Having grown to womanhood in Walker, possessing a happy disposition with tolerance for the pleasure of those about her, Barbara's friendship circle numbers many and her acquaintance is general. Graduating from the Walker high school with the class of 1923, Barbara took a preparatory course the following year at the Villa convent in Duluth. Always of a home loving nature Barbara found her greatest pleasure in home and home making which art she mastered to perfection, it being a well selected education that will give much pleasure and real satisfaction in her new home.

The groom is a stranger to most of our people but is spoken of highly in Brainerd where he has been permanently located during the past year. Mr. Markowitz is a professional man, conducting a dental laboratory in Brainerd. Being apt at his profession and interested in the work a lucrative business is being developed.

The Pilot joins with their friends in wishing the worthy young people a liberal share of the genuine happiness and success that makes for a contented home life.

Mr. and Mrs. Markowitz will be at home to their friends at 47 West Bluff Avenue, Brainerd, Minn., after July 1st.—Walker Pilot.

FIRST REAL RAIN FALLING HERE

Of Immense Value to Crops and Roads, Says County Highway Engineer

FOREST FIRES QUENCHED

Thousands of Dollars Saved in Timber Values in District

Throughout the county today the people are rejoicing over the advent of the first real rain of the season. The farmers, forest men, road men, railways, and general populace, are welcoming the rain like a rich relative. They want it to rain, rain, and even pour.

The rain started yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and a drizzle continued throughout the night and this morning.

"I would place the conservative estimate of the value of the rain to the county at $1,000,000," said W. M. Murphy, county engineer this morning as he grinned cheerfully facing the drizzle, "the value to the farmers, the saving of the roads and fires on automobiles, the forest fires, will easily amount to that estimate."

It even rained more in the outlying districts of Brainerd than in the city itself, the benefit derived from it can only be estimated by the crop received.

All threatening forest fires in the district were put out by the rain, saving the county thousands of dollars in timber value.

The roads which have been in so dire need of rain will become better and save thousands of dollars which would have been spent for repairs.

The high school students of Brainerd must not be forgotten. They also welcomed the rain for it gave them the opportunity to appear in their sparkling "slickers." The dominating color however was yellow, and each "slicker" had "cute" signs on the back which could not help but attract attention. It's a great life if it only rains.

AEROPLANE SIGN

Erected by Scenic Highway Garage, Nash Distributors, on East Oak Street

A very novel sign has been erected on East Oak street, by Brandt Bros., proprietors of the Scenic Highway garage. The sign consists of a small airplane, about 2 1/2 feet in length, erected on a pole. The plane which extends out about 6 feet from its axis is counterbalanced by a Ford and Nash display sign. The airplane is propelled by a small electric motor, controlled by switch from the garage, which drives its bronze propeller. At night the sign is illuminated by 2 colored lights, and attracts a great deal of attention and comment.

STORM CARS, BREAK WINDOWS, CUT ROPES

POWER & LIGHT COMPANY OF CANTON, O., FACES TROUBLE

DISORDERS ARE QUELLED BY POLICE, TWO ARRESTS MADE

Canton, O., May 20. — (UP) — Striking employees of the Northern Power & Light Company stormed nine interurban cars here today, breaking windows, cutting trolley ropes and disabling air pumps.

The disorders were quelled by Canton police and deputized citizens after two arrests had been made.

The near riot broke out when an interurban, managed by alleged strikebreakers crashed into a strike picket's automobile at the Baltimore & Ohio grade crossing.

Augmented by a force of sympathizers, the alleged strikers stormed the car and quickly sped to the barns where the remaining cars were attacked. The incident marked the resumption of disorders quelled a few days ago when the company posted armed guards about its property.

After the disorders, various cars were abandoned in the public square, employees, substituting for the strikers, fearing to operate them.

No injuries were reported.

The strike was called on May 1 in protest to proposed wage reductions. Subsequently the company declined to participate in a mediation conference, declaring service had been restored to normal, despite the walkout. Untoward incidents immediately marked the walkout. Power lines and barn equipment were attacked and in one instance guards frustrated an alleged attempt to dynamite the company's high tension lines.

STOCK MARKET REGAINS STRENGTH

New York, May 21.—(UP)—The stock market session witnessed the strongest price tone in weeks. Short covering in a number of motors and other industrials coupled with some fresh buying for long account and a broad sweeping advance throughout the railroad list resulted in an active trading day with generally higher prices.

Developments in the oil industry continued favorably but with little reflection in the stocks. Call money was slightly firmer with some shifting of loans. Francs made a remarkable recovery—about a quarter cent—on reports of the government plans for stabilizing of French currency. Belgian exchange was higher but lira was lower after a firm opening. Sterling was steady and slightly lower. The market closed higher.

Other People's Blessings

By SIDNEY BLAIR

"I do wish we could live in town, Ned," Mrs. Willoughby exclaimed, walking across the porch to look down the winter-bound road. "I'm so tired of the country!"

"Well—I always feel that I can work better out here," he said slowly. "But perhaps a few months in the city would be a good thing. I'd like being out in the streets at dusk—"

"And seeing the crowds, and having luncheon where there was lots of noise, and ever so many people—" she interrupted.

"And coming in touch with men who are doing my kind of work—I wish we could do it!" he went on.

Oddly enough, only a few days later Ned Willoughby came across an advertisement in the town paper. It announced that a young married couple living in a neighboring city wished to spend a few months in the country, and would like to exchange their apartment for that time with someone who lived out of town.

"The very thing!" Marian Willoughby exclaimed. "Do telegraph them, Ned, so that we can get their apartment before someone else does!"

He did telegraph, and a reply came at once. The Sawyers would run down to the Willoughbys the following Sunday, see their home, and make arrangements.

When it seemed possible that she and Ned might go to the city Marian could hardly contain herself.

"Think of it—no more long, lonely evenings with the wind howling around the house!" she exclaimed to her husband. "No more marketing in town, two miles away—but most of the time we're going to go out to meals."

"I guess we'll have to; Sawyer says in his letter that they have just a kitchenette in their apartment," Ned replied. "Better not take too many clothes, Marian—they have only two closets."

"I'm glad of it!" she retorted. "No room for our old things! We'll be dressed up all the time."

The Sawyers and the Willoughbys were delighted with each other; apparently the Sawyers were as eager to come to the country as the Willoughbys were to leave it.

"Think of it, Hugh," Mrs. Sawyer exclaimed, as she went over the Willoughbys' big, old-fashioned house. "Open fireplaces—huge rooms, too—and we can go walking down this beautiful road without a soul anywhere near us. I do love the country in winter!"

Marian laughed. "I can't understand that!" she said. "It seems to me that nothing could be more perfect than the city right now. Don't forget that you'll need loads of blankets if you use the sleeping porch."

"Oh—we can sleep outdoors Hugh—think of it!" Mrs. Sawyer replied. "And don't you forget," turning to Marian, "that our apartment is an awfully warm one. You'll have to turn off the heat in the bedroom unless you have freezing weather, in order to have it cool enough to sleep."

The two families changed homes the following week. At first Marian was perfectly happy. She liked having only three rooms and a bath to look after, liked not having to bother with a servant, never marketing or thinking of a meal unless she wanted to.

But a month after she had come to the city her feelings were changing. The noise was getting on her nerves. She hated having so few rooms, and such small ones.

"How those Sawyers live in this cubbyhole beats me!" Ned remarked. "And when you think that they pay as much rent for this place as we do for our great big house—"

"With the people upstairs and downstairs and next door living right in their laps," his wife cut in. "Isn't it dreadful? Never any privacy. And the noise. And the—how's your indignation?"

"Worse," he answered. "It's the food I've been eating. Marian, couldn't we have dinner at home tonight?"

"On that electric stove? A whole dinner? Well, I'll try, dear," she answered, relenting at sight of his face. "But I don't see how Mrs. Sawyer ever manages it."

They went home gladly at the end of the third month. Marian longed for her own home, for the big rooms, and the open fireplaces with flames dancing gaily in them, for the copper kettles in her kitchen and the brass candlesticks on the living room mantel. Mrs. Sawyer ran to the front gate to meet them.

"Oh, do tell me—how's our little place?" she asked eagerly. "I can't wait to reach it. How do you ever keep warm in this place? I slept on the sleeping porch one night and nearly froze. And it's so quiet here—and always having to remember what you want from the store or go two miles for it—or go without!"

"You're a smart man to work out here, so far away from everybody else who's doing your kind of experiments," Sawyer remarked to Ned. "How do you do it?"

"How do you ever work at your kind of thing in town?" Ned retorted. "I've done nothing but talk to other men—I haven't done any work at all. I'm glad to get home!"

"We'll be glad, too," declared the Sawyers together. "There's no place like it."

And the Willoughbys agreed with them.

Took Players in "Wanderer" 14 Hours to Don Make-up

Fourteen hours are required by the featured players in "The Wanderer" to apply their make-up for the picture.

Because of the scant amount of clothing worn in many of the scenes it was necessary for many of the cast to cover much of their body with grease-paint.

William Collier, Jr., in the role of the prodigal son, required the longest time of any of the players. Assisted by two helpers, it was necessary for Collier to start at seven o'clock each morning in order to be on the set by nine.

"The Wanderer," which was directed by Raul Walsh for Paramount, is filmed on a scale of unprecedented beauty and lavishness. It opens at the New Park tonight for a three day run.

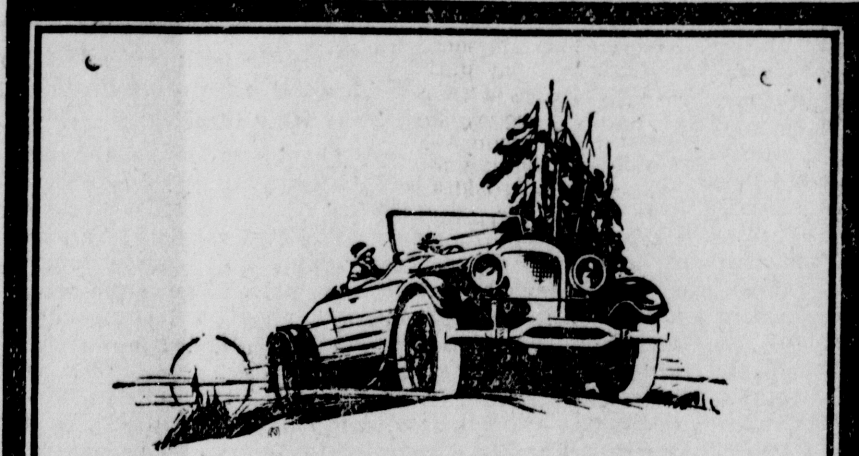

"First Year" A Delightful Comedy Drama

"The First Year," Fox Films version of John Golden's successful stage play of the same name, which opened a two days' run at the Lyceum theatre yesterday, is an enjoyable comedy drama of family life. There is excellent acting and pleasing scenic effects, while the direction by that master, Frank Borzage, could not be excelled.

"The First Year" is a cleverly told story of young married life, showing the difficulties to be encountered before the party of the first part and he party of the second part come to know each other thoroughly.

Jesse James Jr., Here in Movie

Jesse James Jr., son of the notorious Jesse James bandit has been featured in a motion picture called "Jesse James Under the Black Flag" and will be shown at the Lyceum Saturday, matinee and night. This is said to be a faithful portrayal of the famous Jesse James gang.

Explore Your Own Middle West

Pleasure places, wonderful scenery and unusual sights are within a short distance of your home—wherever you may happen to live in the Middle West. This great, rich section of our country has been unexploited, but no part of the world offers more to see and do.

Leave dull care behind and start out tomorrow in your car to explore your own country. Time? It doesn't matter. A day, a week, or a whole summer—it will be packed with pleasure. Money? It's not important. Camp beneath the stars, stop at rustic lodges, put up at smart hotels—as you wish.

Look over this short list. Check the things you've seen, and those you'd like to:

- Wyandotte Cave, Crawford County, Indiana, the second largest cavern in the country. Eleven levels and a passage-way thirteen miles long. Near Corydon on State Highway No. 16.
- Redwood Falls, a magnificent spectacle, in Ramsey State Park, Minnesota. Itasca Park Highway and State Highway No. 14.
- Starved Rock, visited by Marquette and Joliet in 1673, the scene of the last stand of the Illinois Indians. A few miles from Ottawa, Illinois. State Highway No. 7.
- Gorge of the Mississippi in Wisconsin with castellated heights of weathered limestone bearing a fantastic resemblance to fortresses of old. State Highway No. 35.
- Mark Twain State Park in Monroe County, Missouri, on beautiful bluffs overlooking Salt River, where Samuel Clemens was born. Near Paris, State Highways No. 10 and 15.
- Hutchinson, Kansas—a center of the salt industry and an extensive strata of pure rock salt which is probably the largest in the world. Highways No. 59 and No. 32.
- The Kildeer Mountains, the most beautiful of the scenic spots of North Dakota. Near the town of Kildeer on the Mandan-Kildeer and Denver-Esteven Highways.
- Miles of shaded shoreline along the Lake in Michigan. State Highways No. 11 and No. 22.
- Spearfish Canyon, with its sheer walls and tumbling waters, forty miles of exquisite beauty in South Dakota. Custer Battlefield Highway from Rapid City.
- Effigy Indian mounds built in the shape of various animals. Several bird mounds that measure 150 feet from tip to tip of wing North of McGregor, Iowa, on State Highways No. 13 and No. 19.

These are mere suggestions. Isn't the list an incentive to find out what is near you?

Motoring in the Middle West is an unalloyed pleasure. There are fine roads wherever you go—and Red Crown Gasoline all along the way.

Fill your tank with Red Crown Gasoline, get a good road map, and start out tomorrow. Rediscover your own Middle West.
